

Figure 13. Approach Elevation Coverage

Where the physical characteristics of the approach region prevent the achievement of the standards under paragraphs (a) (1), (2), and (3) of this section, guidance need not be provided below a conical surface originating at the elevation antenna and inclined 0.9 degree above the line of sight.